1. Your Summer of Ideas

Summer camp registrations are now live! Please note: camp registration is based on the grade your Girl Scout will be in the fall of 2025.

This summer, Girl Scouts are invited to explore, create, and innovate all camp season long - welcome to Your Summer of Ideas! This year, camp encourages curiosity, problem-solving, and imagination, giving campers the freedom to turn their ideas into reality!

We have some exciting updates to camp this year! Day camps will now take place at our service centers, rather than at our camp properties - because our service centers are in more centralized locations, we know that pick ups and drop offs will be more convenient, and Girl Scouts will be able to spend hands on time in our program centers! We are offering day camps at the Girl Experience Center in Savannah, the Albany Girl Scout DreamLab, and Dot's Little House in Columbus! This will also provide an immersive flow at our resident camps in Augusta, Savannah, and Macon.

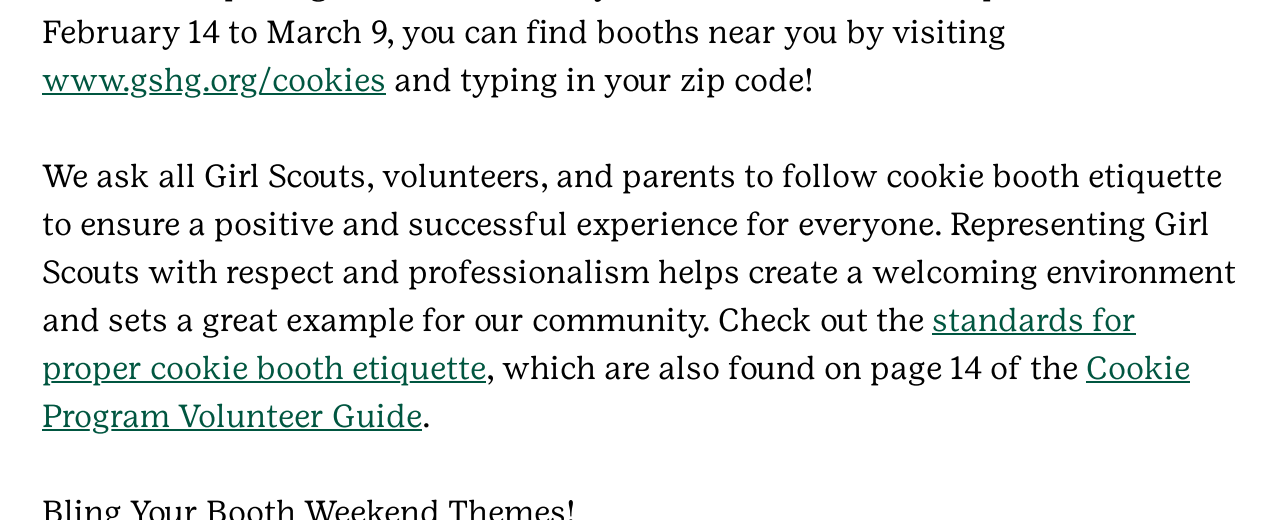

Due to the destruction from Hurricane Helene, we were unsure if we would be able to offer summer camp at Camp Tanglewood this year. The debris has been removed and the camp is safe to visit after many months of hard work. We are proud to say that we can host half a week of summer camp at Camp Tanglewood for older girls! Camp Like A Girl will be offered to Cadettes, Seniors, and Ambassadors!

And perhaps our most adventurous news: Camp Martha Johnston is turning 100 years old this year! We will be celebrating the centennial of CMJ all year long and we have three weeks of amazing camp experiences planned for this summer!

From brainstorming big dreams to making them happen, every camper will leave inspired, empowered, and ready to make a difference. This is their summer to dream, create, and shine!

BIG IDEAS!
